Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps Marine Option Scholarship

The Marines are looking for highly qualified high school seniors to apply for the 4-Year Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) Scholarship! Last year seven students from across Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts won the scholarship.

The Four Year NROTC Scholarship provides qualified high school students the opportunity to attend their chosen college fully tuition free and put them on the path to a rewarding career as a Marine Corps Officer.

The Scholarship pays for the entire tuition as well as book fees, uniform costs, and a monthly stipend. There are nearly 200 colleges nationwide that participate in the program.

If your student is selected, they will enter college next fall on scholarship. While participating in the program, they will train with and learn from the hand-picked Marines that lead the university's NROTC unit. At the same time, the student will experience a typical college life with their civilian peers.

Upon college graduation, they will be given the honor of commissioning as a Marine Corps Officer. They will then undertake several months of additional elite level training and serve full-time as an Active-Duty Marine Corps Officer.

To apply, students must meet the below requirements

- Citizenship: Must be a U.S. citizen. Dual citizens may also apply.
- Age: Must be between 17-23 years old by the time they start freshman year of college.
- Education level: Must be a current high school senior, and graduate high school no later than September 2024.
- Test Scores: Attain at least one of the below test scores before or during the application process:

SAT: 1000 combined score or better
 ACT: 22 combined score or better
 ASVAB: 74 or better

Physical Fitness: Applicants should be highly physically fit. All applicants will take the Marine Corps Physical Fitness Test during the application process, which includes maximum effort pull-ups or push-ups, a 3-mile run, and a timed plank.

The application period is open now and closes January 31st!
First selection board is in November.

MARINE CORPS EDUCATOR'S WORKSHOP 2025

The Marines of Recruiting Station Boston would like to formally invite you to join us for our annual Educator's Workshop taking place 1 – 4 April, 2025 at Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island, South Carolina.

This workshop is all expenses paid: your airfare, hotel, and all meals will be provided by the Marine Corps at no cost to you or your school. This invitation is open to high school teachers, administrative staff, coaches, and school board members.

Additionally, each participant will receive a letter certifying that they completed fourteen hours of continued education credits.

The workshop is part of the Marine Corps' effort to provide educators with knowledge about the Incredible transformation each recruit undergoes during recruit training. Educators will also learn about the wide variety of occupational and educational training the Marine Corps offers to young men and women.

You will witness recruits conducting physical training, earning swim qualifications, firing on the rifle range, and completing the legendary 54-hour right of passage, "The Crucible".

During the workshop you will participate in leadership and team development exercises, train with Marine Corps Martial Arts Instructors, and have a lunch with recruits from your local area.

Due to a limited number of spots, reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. Reserve your spot now to ensure you will be able to join us for this exciting opportunity. Educators are encouraged share this information with their colleagues.

MARINES

Dear Musician,

My name is Captain Edgardo Diaz and I am the Executive Officer for Marine Corps Recruiting Station Boston. I am responsible for scouting for talented musicians in Vermont, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine. My mission is to find the best and brightest musicians to become members of the renowned Marine Corps Bands.

Marine Corps Musicians are full-time, professional musicians. They enjoy unique assignments and training opportunities that improve their musical skills and professional experience all while serving our nation as United States Marines. If you desire to have a career as a professional musician, I challenge you to start your journey with the Marine Corps Bands.

Musicians talented in any of the following instruments are invited to apply: Oboe, Bassoon, Flute, Clarinet, Saxophone, Euphonium, French Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Bass Guitar, Guitar, Vocalist, and Percussion.

Marine Corps Bands have the reputation of being some of the finest ensembles in the world. They serve as "Musical Ambassadors" for the United States of America and the United States Marine Corps. The United States military is the largest employer of professional musicians in the country. There are ten bands located around the U.S. and abroad.

Not only will you be pursuing your passion while serving with the Nation's finest, but you will also be afforded the following opportunities and benefits:

- Full time salary as a professional musician
- 100% medical and dental benefits
- The ability to pay student loans, including $50,000 towards continued education
- College tuition assistance while serving in the Marine Corps
- College tuition assistance after service in the Marine Corps
- Savings for retirement; automatic contribution match, dollar-for-dollar, up to 5%
- Guaranteed 30 days paid vacation each year
- Worldwide and nationwide travel opportunities
- Network and perform alongside world renowned musicians
- Perform alongside other military bands from around the world
- Opportunity to play for leaders of nations, diplomatic events, professional sports events, and international music festivals
- Access to the industry standard in equipment
- Leadership and management skills
- Professional development and marketable skills
- Ability to lead ensembles as a conductor or drum major
- Performs hundreds of commitments annually

Establish Musical Qualification

When you contact me to begin the audition process, please provide a professional resume or brief description of your musical background and experience. In order to become eligible to serve as a Marine Musician, musical proficiency must be established in accordance with Marine Corps Audition Standards. Musical qualifications are conducted in two parts: (a) preliminary round and (b) audition round.

Preliminary Round

The preliminary round is used to establish musical background and the potential to succeed in the audition round. You will need to provide a video submission performing all instrument specific musical excerpts, which will be provided to you. Any additional works, solos and performances demonstrating overall strengths are encouraged and welcomed but are not required. Your video submission will be reviewed by our Musician Placement Director, a Marine Corps Bands member with over 15 years of experience as a Marine Corps Musician.

Audition Round

Based on the preliminary round, you may be invited to perform in the audition round. The Musician Placement Director will hold the audition round within your geographical area, which will be coordinated through myself or a local Marine Corps recruiter. This serves as the final determining factor for establishing musical entrance qualifications for service as a Marine Musician. The audition round for all brass and woodwind instrumentalists consists of the following:

Event 1 – Perform all required excerpts.

Event 2 – Perform sight-reading as provided by proctor.

Getting Started

If you are interested in learning more about the Marine Corps Music Program, contact me via email or phone with a professional resume a brief description of your musical background and experience. If you are interested in auditioning, I will provide the required excerpts for your instruments upon request. Please feel free to visit the links below for more information and see the life of a Marine Corps Musician. If you have any questions regarding the audition process, feel free to contact me directly or you may contact your local Marine Corps recruiter. I look forward hearing from you and wish you the best of luck!

Sincerely,

Edgardo Diaz
