

Red Pine Scholars Program

2025-2026 SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Red Pine Scholars Program is seeking its next class of students from low- to middle-income families in Massachusetts who have demonstrated academic excellence and are planning to attend competitive colleges as freshmen in the fall of 2025. This program is designed to support undergraduate students through tuition assistance, mentoring, and other flexible financial supports. The Red Pine Scholars Program is dedicated to making college affordable for Massachusetts families and helping students reach their full potential. The program is funded by an anonymous donor and administered by The Philanthropic Initiative (TPI).

We invite you to share the Red Pine Scholars Program guidelines with students who will be entering college in fall 2025 and who meet this program's criteria.

Information about the program, including guidelines and application instructions, can be found here.

While many students are deserving of this type of support during college, to be eligible for this program students must:

1. Come from low- to middle-income families
2. Live and attend high school in Massachusetts
3. Have a strong academic record or demonstrate significant academic improvement over time
4. Be planning to enroll as a freshman at a competitive four-year college in fall 2025

Applications must be submitted online – hard copies will not be accepted.

Applications must be completed online by February 13, 2025 at 5:00 PM EST.

The Red Pine Scholars Program is administered by The Philanthropic Initiative (TPI). Please direct any questions to Kira Azulay at redpine@tpi.org or 617.338.5885.

Thank you in advance for your help ensuring as many students as possible learn about this important program.
