

Holocaust Symposium for Teens

“Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.”

George Santayana

October/November 2021

The Holocaust Symposium for Teens is open to Marblehead High School students in grades 9-12.

Syllabus • Sessions will be held on Thursdays, 3-4 p.m. at Marblehead High School

Session 1: October 7
The Holocaust: Who, What, When, Where, Why and How

Session 2: October 14
The Power of Symbols, Kristallnacht (Night of Broken Glass), Meet a Holocaust Survivor

Session 3: October 21
Six Stages of the Holocaust, Final Solution and Meet a Holocaust Survivor

Session 4: October 28
Antisemitism Today

Session 5: November 4
Book Group Discussion

Session 6: November 18
Lessons Learned from the Holocaust

Why is Holocaust education important?

- Demonstrates the dangers of antisemitism, discrimination, dehumanization and hatred
- Illustrates how institutions can be turned against a segment of society
- Increases our understanding about human possibilities in extreme and desperate situations
- Reinforces humanistic values that protect and preserve free and just societies

Students who attend all of the sessions will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

There is no cost to participate in the symposium.

Register HERE to enroll in the symposium.

If you have questions, email Deborah Coltin: dcoltin@lappinfoundation.org.

LAPPIN FOUNDATION

29 Congress Street, Salem, MA 01970
LappinFoundation.org • 978-740-4428

Salem STATE UNIVERSITY
Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies

